WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD, June 11, 10 P.M.: Weather, hazy; wind, light N.

The steamer Likieki will take up the Claudine's route this week. She goes out at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Mikahala came down from the marine railway on Saturday. She takes up her Kauai route again this afternoon.

The steamship City of Peking, 3129 tons register, K. R. Searles, commander, arrived early last Saturday morning, twelve days out from the Yokohama, and was docked at the P. M. S. S. Co.'s wharf at 7 A.M. She brought several passengers and 135 tons of freight for this port. The Peking was drawing 234 feet when she crossed the bar, coming into the harbor. She had 34 European saloon passengers in transit. After unloading her cargo she left again on Saturday afternoon for San Francisco.

The barkentine Discovery, Captain D. McNeill, leaves today for the coast.

The steamer Claudine will go up on the marine railway tomorrow, and will remain there for several days.

The full-rigged American ship Kate Davenport, Captain Reynolds, arrived on Sunday, 19 days from Port Townsend, with about 700,000 feet of lumber for Messrs. Allen & Robinson. When she arrived off port she anchored in 10 fathoms of water and remained there until the tug Eleu went out and towed her into port. She is now lying in the stream off Brewer's wharf.

The Lurline was to leave Hilo on Sunday last for San Francisco with 10,000 bags of sugar.

The different vessels in the harbor were gaily decorated yesterday in honor of Kamehameha day.

Not a Howling Success.

Prof. Ruchwaldy appeared at the Opera house on Saturday evening before a small audience. He appeared in a "grand magical, psychical, optical and musical entertainment," as the programme had it. The professor's efforts seemed to meet with favor although most of his tricks had a "chest-nutty" flavor.

The Enterprising Burglar.

On last Friday night or Saturday morning the residence of Robert Catton, on Kinau street, was entered by a burglar. Several rooms in the house were ransacked. The thief secured two watches and then decamped.

A Long Battle.

There was a large crowd of people at the fish market yesterday morning to witness the tug-of-war contest between the "Fish Market" team and the Kapuokolo team. The first-named team was victorious after a pull which lasted nearly two hours.

Sold for a Song.

The property formerly owned by the Booth estate, on the corner of Nuuanu and Hotel streets, was sold at auction for $18,000 on last Saturday. Some years ago $43,000 was paid for the land.

Memorial Service.

The Oddfellows will hold a memorial service at Harmony hall on next Sunday afternoon. After the service the graves of deceased brethren will be decorated.

Ill-fated Liquor Selling.

At Ah Ah Sing, Keolewa, Awau and David Noa are all under arrest for selling swipes. They were arrested on Saturday night.

THE HAWAIIAN PASTORS.

To Call on President Dole This Morning at 11 o'clock.

Yesterday morning by a vote of 23 to 11, the Hawaiian Evangelical Association decided to call on the Provisional government to show their respect. The association is composed chiefly of native Hawaiians. The pastors will meet in front of the judiciary building at 11 o'clock, and accompanied by members of the mission societies, they will march over to the executive building and be received by President Dole.

Has Not Resigned.

The Ka Leo's issue of Friday states that George Beckley, the purser of the Kinan, has resigned his position. On inquiring at the office of the Wilder steamship company it was learned that Mr. Beckley had not resigned and, as far as they knew, he did not intend to do so.

A Visiting Clergyman.

The Rev. M. C. Sanders, an army chaplain from Punjab, India, was a passenger by the s. s. City of Peking, and will remain here a month, paying a visit to the volcano in the meantime. At the Sunday services of the second congregation, Rev. Sanders preached in St. Andrew's cathedral.

On the Coast of Hawaii.

Last Tuesday morning after the bark Harvester left the Hilo harbor the wind died out and the vessel commenced to drift toward the coast between Onomea and Papai-kou. A signal of distress was hoisted and a tug went to her assistance.

A Good Pair.

A native woman was arrested last evening for hammering her little baby. A little later on a waterman was hauled in for hammering his wife. They will have an opportunity this morning in the district court to explain themselves.
